

World Book Day 2020

Thursday 5th March

This year, we will be starting our World Book Day celebrations early! On Monday 24th and Friday 28th of February, author and illustrator, Liz Million will be visiting us. She will tell us what it's like to be an author, share some of her books and even share some of her illustrating tips with us. This will be really useful for our illustration competition that we will be completing in school.

As always, we will be celebrating all kinds of books, but with a particular focus on books with illustrations this year. On the day itself, we will have the opportunity to;

Share a Story You can bring your favourite book from home to show your class and talk about!	Model Reading The older children will meet up with the younger ones to read some of their favourite stories, as we do regularly.	Book Tour The teachers will tour different classrooms sharing their favourite picture books with new classes
Illustration competition Winners of the illustration competition will be judged and rewarded.	Book Swap You can bring an old book to swap with someone in your class	and much more.
Dress a potato This year, rather than dressing yourselves, we'd like you to dress a potato as one of your favourite story characters! The most creative and wonderful potatoes will earn their creator a prize! If you'd like to take part, bring your potato in on World Book Day.

Thank you
